AN IMMORAL RABBI AT NEW ORLEANS.

National Shooting Affray—A Horrible Crime in Pennsylvania—Sins of a Day.

NEW ORLEANS, La., February 9.—A meeting of the Board of Directors of the Jewish Widows and Orphans' Home, on Jackson street, in this city, was held yesterday to take action in reference to the alleged seduction of one of the orphan inmates by the superintendent of the institution, Rabbi R. L. Weil. President E. I. Kersheed reported that on the 21st instant he had discharged Weil from his position as superintendent for grossly immoral conduct, and by a unanimous vote of the board the action of the president was approved.

Embezzled Over $50,000.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., February 9.—Five years ago Richard Waddingham, the mill owner of California, began the erection of a $50,000 residence at West Haven, and engaged as his supervising architect and disbursing agent James Scott, a Salt Lake City Mormon. Recently Mr. Waddingham had reason to believe that Scott was dishonest. He engaged an attorney to investigate the matter, and five weeks ago Scott was arrested and placed in charge of a deputy sheriff, who has kept him under his eye ever since. The matter was kept very quiet. When first arrested Scott stoutly denied his guilt, but last night he confessed that he had embezzled about $50,000, and claimed that several prominent merchants of this city were implicated with him. He claims that he received bills from the merchants for about one third more than the regular price of articles purchased, and after paying the bills divided the surplus with the merchants. He was paid a salary of $8 per day, given a commodious residence and allowed $1000 per week to pay the expenses of the construction. The affair has caused a decided sensation in business circles, and future developments are awaited with interest.

Killed by a Barkeeper.

NEW YORK, February 9.—Samuel E. Thompson, a salesman for Whitfield, Powers & Co., dry goods dealers of this city, had a quarrel early this morning on Greenwich avenue with Alex. Slater, a bartender. Slater struck Thompson on the head with his clenched fist, felling him to the sidewalk. In his fall Thompson's head struck the flagstones with a crash. Thompson's skull had been fractured by the fall, and he died in the station-house shortly after he was conveyed there. Slater said Thompson was a much taller and heavier man, struck him in a saloon with a billiard cue, and that he only retaliated when they reached the street. Thompson was once wealthy. He was in the cotton business in New York and had a fortune of $300,000, but he lost it in speculations. His wife is said to be wealthy and respectable residents of Paducah, Ky.

Chinese Gambling Saloon Raided.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., February 9.—Last night Officers Herbert, Emmet and Kickham raided the Chinese gambling-house formerly kept by Joe Gong, now on trial for complicity in the murder of Lou Johnson, but recently managed by Ah Show. The house is a three-story structure, and the inmates were packed together with little regard to comfort or sanitary conditions. A signal gong had been arranged leading to the third floor, where the gamblers were engaged in playing lottery, but that did not help them. The officers broke in the front door, and by a bold dash arrived on the third floor in time to capture one of the speculative Celestials as he was crawling out on the roof. Altogether, six men were taken in, and a large quantity of material was confiscated.

Using the Mail for Fraudulent Purposes.

GALVESTON, Tex., February 9.—A special to the News from Denison says: Thomas C. Carlock, president of the Texas Oklahoma Colony, was arrested in this city yesterday upon a warrant sworn out by United States Postoffice Inspector Morton, charging him with using the mail for fraudulent purposes, and in default of bail he was lodged in jail. Carlock's plan of operations was to induce parties who were solicited to join the colony to send him $2, which would entitle them to membership, and a homestead of 100 acres of land. Carlock will have a preliminary examination before United States Commissioner Adams on February 15th.

The St. Louis Chinese Murder Cases.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., February 9.—The case of Olo Gong, or Joe Gong, has been called in the Criminal Court in this city. Joe Gong is the Chinaman who kept the gambling-house at 609 Market street, which was raided at Lou Johnson's instance, by the police. Ohio Chiang, who was convicted a week ago, was Joe Gong's right-hand man. Gong offered it, is alleged, $500 for the killing of Johnson, and shortly after the offer he was killed. So far as known, there is no evidence that any more than $15 was paid, and that was given to the informant, Qung Sang, in the collar of the building on the morning of June 1st, 1885, just before Johnson was killed. Qung Sang took the money then from Ohio Chiang. The testimony taken does not vary from that taken during the trial of Ohio Chiang.

Revenue Officer Peppered by Moonshiners.

ATLANTA, Ga., February 9.—From Newton county it is learned that the revenue officer named John L. Cochran, got into a difficulty which may cost him his life. For some time it has been suspected that Cochran was a spy. Yesterday while on his way to leave a suit near the dark John and Jake Parker, two moonshiners, concealed behind a tree peppered away at Cochran riddling him with bird shot. They then went to an adjoining town and swore out a warrant against Cochran, charging him with a suit and battery, and the wounded man is now under arrest. The revenue officials have sent two of their best men to the locality who will bring the Parkers back dead or alive.

A Horrible Crime.

EMT, Pa., February 9.—In the investigation by the coroner's jury into the death of Mrs. Bohall's four months' old child, at the Penn. Mills, Conn. county, Pa., Bohall, its stepfather, testified that he awoke in the night and found the child dead. When the mother was called she refused to speak until her husband was removed from the room. Bohall refused to leave until testified to do so. Mrs. Bohall then testified that after they had retired Wednesday night, the baby cried and fretted. Bohall grew angry and struck the child across the face, and then seized

A CHURCH ORGANIZED BY JUDGE FLY AT WATER VALLEY.

With the Assistance of His Brother, in 1880—His Confession of Faith and Ministry.

ATLANTA, Ga., February 9.—A fatal shooting which took place at Andale Sunday, threatens to become a reprobation. Years ago John Norris and Jack Garland were the warmest personal friends. They lived near each other, and were almost constantly together. Norris picked out the way, as Norris to Tennessee. After Norris went away Garland was lonesome, and frequent letters passed between them. Norris tried to persuade Garland to go to Tennessee, but Garland would not go. Saturday last Norris came back to Andale, and Sunday morning walked into Garland's house. Garland was surprised and welcomed his old friend warmly. Garland was carried away with Norris's return, and picking up a shotgun pointed it at Norris. A hand-to-hand fight followed, and Norris's hand was dropped. The one-eyed man, and Garland tried to kill himself. Dr. Medlock found that the entire head had gone through the left eyeball, and pronounced the wound a fatal one. It was thought at the time that the shooting was accidental, but it now appears that Garland meant to put Norris out of the way, as Norris had knowledge of crimes of which Garland was guilty and he feared that he had betrayed to tell on him.

Riot at Christiansburg, Va.

LYNCHBURG, Va., February 9.—A special to the Daily Advance from Christiansburg, Va., says: A riot occurred at Reidsville last night. Twenty drunken negroes attempted to take the town. The citizens called on Christiansburg for help, which was given, and five of the rioters were lodged in jail. The town is now quiet.

Hanged by a Mob.

PARIS, Tex., February 9.—At 1 o'clock this morning a mounted posse of nearly 100 masked men suddenly appeared at the jail in the jail in the (Lamar) county. While the posse remained mounted a dozen of the party dismounted and knocked for admittance at the front. Jailor Baldwin opened the door and immediately two men sprang inside. Baldwin showed fight, and fired at his revolver, but the men knocked his arm up and then choked Baldwin until he grew black in the face. Breaking open a cell the desperado seized R. T. Garrett, the wounded deputy sheriff, who killed Deputy Sheriff Clay Davis. They dragged him through the street leading to the jail, and when they were waiting outside and marched to a timber three-quarters of a mile distant, where Garrett was strung up to a tree. His body was found dangling from a common halter this morning. Vigilantes prepared the attack with great care. Guards were placed on every street leading to the jail, and the jailor's wife rang the alarm bell. Many citizens tried to reach the jail but were pulled up by six shooters. Garrett was arrested for disturbing a Christmas tree festival at Shiloh. Deputy Sheriff Davis kindly permitted him to leave his home before going to jail, whereupon Garrett seized his rifle and brutally murdered the officer while the latter's back was turned. Garrett was afterwards captured in the woods, receiving fourteen desperate wounds while resisting arrest.

Saloon Burglarized.

BOURNVILLE, Tenn., February 9.—The saloon belonging to J. W. Bignall & Co. was raided Sunday night about 1:30 o'clock by burglars. The safe was blown open and the contents, consisting of $800 cash and $3000 worth of notes, was stolen. Twenty-five dollars of it was recovered, it having been lost by the saloonkeeper. The saloonkeeper is on foot, which will undoubtedly develop all the facts in the case. It is believed the parties live in and around Burnsville.

Is It Not Singular

that consumptives should be the least apprehensive of their own condition, while all their friends are urging and beseeching them to be more careful about exposure and overdoing. It may well be considered one of the most alarming symptoms of the disease, when the patient is reckless and will not believe that he is in danger. Ready, if you are in this condition, do not neglect the only means of recovery. Avoid exposure and fatigue, be regular in your habits, and use faithfully Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery." It has saved thousands who were steadily failing.

THE FREE METHODISTS.

A CHURCH ORGANIZED BY JUDGE FLY AT WATER VALLEY.

With the Assistance of His Brother, in 1880—His Confession of Faith and Ministry.

Mr. D. Fly, editor of Free Churchman of Water Valley, Miss., was in the city yesterday and paid a visit to the Appeal office, where he was interviewed as to the church organization which his paper represents—the Methodist Free Church in America—and with the following result:

Rejoice—When was the church organized, and where?

Mr. Fly—In 1880 in Water Valley, Miss.

With whom did it originate?

"With Judge Fly, my brother, who drew up the constitution of government."

What is its form of government?

"What is its form of government?"

"Congregational. We have no bishops or presiding elders. The congregations select their pastors."

Do you differ from the Methodist Episcopal Church in faith?

"Yes, in two or three points. Our church ignores the doctrine of total depravity, and we believe that Christ by his atonement simply restored the race to its primal condition. We do not believe, as the Protestant Episcopal church teaches, that God is a spirit without body or form or parts. That would be an impossibility. We believe he has a human form and that he revealed himself as a personality several times, and then we are told that Christ was in the form of God and the express image of his person. We believe from a Bible standpoint that there is but one order of ministry—elder or presbyter. We have deacons, but they are merely laymen. All members of the church are equal before the law."

How many churches have you?

"I think thirty-five or forty. I could not say exactly. I haven't the data before me. We have, I may add, about the same number of ministers."

How many conferences have you?

"We have two district conferences which meet annually. We have not yet organized a general conference."

Are any of these conferences organized in other States than Mississippi?

"No. We have no conferences outside of Mississippi."

Have you any missionaries in the field?

"No special missionaries. We all claim to be missionaries."

What is the extent of your membership?

"I don't know exactly, and would not like to say unless I had the minutes of the last conference before me."

What is your method of church extension?

"It is for every member as the cause of Christ."

With this intention closed, Mr. Fly is a brother of the Judge, and with him helped to build it to its present proportions.

Mr. Fly is a brother of the Judge, and with him helped to build it to its present proportions. He was formerly a member of the Methodist Church, South, and the Judge was for thirty-five years a minister, and Mr. Fly for twenty-five years.

Sore Eyes

The eyes are always in sympathy with the body, and afford an excellent index of its condition. When the eyes become weak, and the lids inflamed and sore, it is an evidence that the system has become disordered by Scrophula, for which Ayer's Sarsaparilla is the best known remedy.

Cured

My eyes are now in a splendid condition, and I am well and strong as ever. Mrs. William Gay, Concord, N. H.

For a number of years I was troubled with a humor in my eyes, and was unable to obtain any relief until I commenced using Ayer's Sarsaparilla. This medicine has effected a complete cure, and I believe it to be the best of blood purifiers. C. E. Upton, Nashua, N. H.
